INFORMATION FOR BIDDERS

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

1. All bids to be PER LOT as numbered in the catalogue.

2. The highest bidder to be the buyer. In instances of similar bids, preference is given to the first received. Bidding advances are as follows: 25¢ up to $5.00; 50¢ up to $10.00; $1.00 from $10.00 to $50.00; $2.50 from $50.00 to $100.00. All bidding is handled at the full discretion of the auctioneer.

3. All material catalogued and sold by us is guaranteed to be authentic in all respects and to be as represented. If in doubt concerning a lot, please do not bid before requesting additional information.

4. All bidders must have established credit with the cataloguers or send an advance deposit equal to 25 per cent of their bids. Such deposits will be refunded if bids are unsuccessful.

5. Accounts are payable when bills are rendered and must be paid promptly.

6. We make no charge for executing bids, but we do charge for packing numismatic literature. No commission is charged the buyer.

7. Lots will be exhibited five days prior to the sale and on the day of sale, 9:30 A.M. to 11:30 A.M. at our salesroom, 1 West 47th Street, New York City, N. Y.

8. Estimates of any lots will be furnished by the cataloguers upon request.

9. Postage and insurance charges will be added to the invoice.

10. A list of Prices Realized will be sent without charge to all bidders.

11. As our sales are public ones, conducted by a licensed auctioneer, it is necessary that all minors present parental permission to bid before commencement of the sale.

12. Unlimited or "Buy" bids cannot be accepted.

NOTE: When making your bids please be careful that you are bidding on the very lot you wish, as we cannot be responsible for your errors.

We are well known in the coin business and you may have complete confidence in us. We can only advise you to bid liberally if you wish to be successful. WE WILL PURCHASE FOR YOU BELOW YOUR LIMIT BID IF OTHER BIDS RECEIVED PERMIT.

Material sold at this sale, May 17, 1952, will not be delivered at the Hotel New Weston, but at our salesroom, 1 West 47th Street, New York City, N. Y., immediately after the conclusion of the sale.

UNITED STATES CURRENCY

The Property of a New York Collector

As we predicted in our 32nd catalog, interest in our national currency has increased considerably during the past year. There is a strong and constant demand for choice and interesting material and the rarer varieties repeatedly sell at record prices. The estimates following each lot can be considered a true reflection of current market value.

DEMAND NOTES

The Demand Notes were authorized by Acts of Congress, July 17, 1861 and August 5, 1861 and are dated August 10, 1861. All were issued prior to April 1, 1862 and are payable at New York, Philadelphia, Boston, St. Louis and Cincinnati. They are the only notes without the seal of the United States Treasury. All are Very Rare and seldom found in nice condition.

206 — $5. Payable at Philadelphia. Good to V. Good. Few unimportant pin holes. A fairly clean and definitely acceptable specimen. Catalogs at $50.00 in Fine condition. ($30.00)
207 — $10. Payable at Philadelphia. Abt. Good. Few pin holes, mostly at the left end. Not torn and mended as usually found. Worthy of a home in any collection. Catalogs at $75.00 in Fine condition. ($40.00)
208 — $20. Payable at New York. Strictly Very Good, but mended upon the reverse at several creases. A clean, attractive note that unfortunately was torn due to repeated creasing. Of the most extreme rarity. Catalogs at $350.00 in Fine condition. ($200.00)

LEGAL TENDER NOTES

First issue, by Act of Congress, February 25, 1862, are dated March 10, 1862. The Second issue, by Act of Congress, July 11 1862, are dated August 1, 1862. The Third issue, by Act of Congress, March 3, 1863, are dated March 10, 1863. The Fourth issue, by Act of Congress, March 3, 1863, were issued in Series of 1869, 1874, 1875, 1878, 1880, 1907 1917 and 1923. The Fifth issue, authorized by the Legal Tender acts of 1862-63 was issued in the Series of 1901.

209 — $1. 1862. Chittenden & Spinner. Red seal. Low serial number of 764. Unc. A choice and desirable example of the first "Dollar Greenback." ($13.50)

210 — $2. 1862. Chittenden & Spinner. Red seal. Serial number 44915. Shade from perfect Unc. A beautiful and decidedly uncommon note. Selling for over catalog. ($20.00)

211 — $2. 1869. Allison & Spinner. L. Red (Spikes) seal. Uncirculated. Really rare. ($20.00)

212 — $5. 1869. Allison & Spinner. L. Red (Spikes) seal. Almost perfect. Scarce. ($15.00)

213 — $5. 1869. Another, almost the equal to the last. Uncommon so fine. ($13.50)

214 — $10. 1869. Allison & Spinner. L. Red (Spikes) seal. The first of the "Jackass" notes. Uncirculated. A crisp and beautiful example worth in excess of catalog. ($32.50)

The $10 Legal Tender notes of the Series 1869-80 have long been popularly called "Jackass" notes because of the small eagle on the lower center obverse. This eagle, when inverted, resembles a donkey's head.

215 — $5 & $10. 1869. A pair, as described above. Very Fine and Abt. Unc. Choice and desirable. 2 Pcs. ($35.00)

In 1869, the initial Series of the Fourth issue, the Government began the use of silk fibre paper.

216 — $1. 1874. Allison & Spinner. Red (Rays) seal. Beautifully centered. Uncirculated. A rare and highly desirable note particularly in choice condition. V. Rare. ($60.00)

217 — $1. 1874. Another, not quite the equal of the last. Ex. Fine. V. Rare. ($45.00)

218 — $1. 1875. Allison & New. Red (Rays) seal. Uncirculated. Crisp and choice. ($10.00)

219 — $2. 1875. Allison & New. Red (Rays) seal. SERIES B. Extremely Fine. Has a few insignificant pin holes, but is, all in all, an attractive and desirable example of this rarity. Catalogs at $35.00 in only Fine condition. This specimen is worth considerably more. ($45.00)

220 — $1. 1878. Allison & Gilfillan. Red (Rays) seal. Unc. Another splendid note. ($12.50)

221 — $2.1878. Allison & Gilfillan. Red (Rays) seal. Unc. A superb mate for the last. In demand. ($17.50)

222 — $10. 1878. Allison & Gilfillan. Red (Rays) seal. Almost perfect. No creases or folds. Another "Jackass" note. Lists at $35.00 when new and readily brings that amount. ($30.00)

223 — $2. 1880. Bruce & Wyman. L. Brown (Spikes) seal. Crisp Unc. Not a rare note, but highly desirable in perfect condition. ($12.50)

224 — $2. 1880. Rosecrans & Huston. L. Red (Spikes) seal. Just about perfect. One of the finest examples of this rarity that we have ever seen. Records to $75.00. ($60.00)

225 — $10. 1901. Lyons & Roberts. S. Red (Scalloped) seal. Unc. A beautiful and comparatively inexpensive note. ($20.00)

226 — $5. 1907. Speelman & White. Small Red seal. Uncommon star note. Serial number *2263777. Unc. Scarce and interesting. ($12.50)

227 — $1. 1917. Teehee & Burke. Small Red seal. Extremely low serial number of A10A. Unc. Crisp. Cost $5.00. ($5.00)

228 — $1. 1917. Burke & Elliot. Small Red seal. Rare variety with transposed signatures. Well centered and choice Unc. In great demand. ($7.50)

229 — $1. 1917. Burke & Elliot. A pair, like the last, with transposed signatures. Unusual serial numbers—H13592893A and H13592992A. Uncirculated choice. Rare. 2 Pcs. ($15.00)

230 — $1. 1917. Elliot & Burke. Small Red seal. Signatures in regular order, but THE REVERSE INVERTED. Undoubtedly this was the result of the sheet becoming reversed after the obverse impression, so that the back plate was printed inverted. Unc. and crisp. Ex. Rare.

231 — $1 & $2. 1917. Speelman & White. Small Red seal. The $1. is an uncommon star note and the $2. has a serial number of D95000000A. Unc. Scarce. 2 Pcs. ($8.50)

232 — $1. 1917. Elliott & White. Also, $1. 1923. Speelman & White. Both have S. Red seals. Unusual pair in that the first has a serial number of M9000000A and the second, A361B. Just about perfect. 2 Pcs. ($5.00)

TREASURY OR COIN NOTES

These notes were authorized by an Act of Congress, July 14, 1890, and were issued in the Series of 1890-91. They were intended to be used for the purchase of Silver Bullion and, oddly enough, are redeemable in Gold or Silver coin at the discretion of the Secretary of the Treasury.

233 — $1. 1890. Rosecrans & Huston. L. Brown (Spikes) seal. Pen AUTOGRAPHED "J.N. Huston Treasr US 1889." Just about perfect. Worth more than the regular note which catalogs at $40.00 ($50.00)

234 — $2. 1890. Rosecrans & Nebeker. L. Brown (Spikes) seal. Better than Fine. Lists at $40.00 in only Fine condition and is seldom available even at that figure. V. Rare. ($45.00)

235 — $1 & $2. 1891. Tillman & Morgan. S. Red seal. Also, $5. 1891. Rosecrans & Nebeker. Same seal. First two almost Unc., last Ex. Fine with two or three unimportant pin holes. Scarce and attractive lot. Popular. 3 Pcs. ($32.50)

SILVER CERTIFICATES

The First issue, by Act of Congress, Feb. 28, 1878, Series of 1878 and 1880, were signed by the Assistant Treasurer; the Second issue, by Act of Congress, August 4, 1886, were issued in the Series of 1886, 1891 and 1908; the Third issue was in Series of 1896; the Fourth issue was in the Series of 1899 and the Fifth issue was in the Series of 1923.

236 — $10. 1880. Bruce & Gilfillan. Brown (Rays) seal. Strictly Fine; slight mend at the right end. Cost $30.00. ($25.00)

238 — $5. 1886. Rosecrans & Huston. L. Brown (Spikes) seal. Better than Fine. Rare and valuable note which catalogs at $20.00 in only Fine. ($22.50)

239 — $50. 1891. Parker & Burke. Blue seal. Extremely Fine. A rare and desirable high denomination note. Cost $125.00 which we believe is too high. ($85.00)

240 — $1. 1899. Parker & Burke. Blue seal. Set of four notes (Cut sheet) with the consecutive serial numbers, R25R to R28R inclusive. Unc. Crisp. A rare and valuable item. Cut sheets of this series have always been rare and when combined with low serial numbers they are of excessive rarity. 4 Pcs. ($30.00)

241 — $1. 1899. Parker & Burke. Similar to the last, but three notes numbered 30, 40 & 50. Unc. Crisp. Highly interesting and unusual. Regular examples sell for $4.00 each. These are worth much more. 3 Pcs. ($15.00)

242 — $1. 1899. Teehee & Burke. Blue seal. Set of four notes interestingly numbered T13T; U13U; V13V and X13X. Unc. Crisp. A most unusual item and worth a very good price. 4 Pcs. ($17.50)

243 — $1. 1899. Elliot & White. Blue seal. THE REVERSE INVERTED. Abt. V. Fine. Ex. Rare.

244 — $2. 1899. Lyons & Roberts. Blue seal. THE REVERSE INVERTED. Fine or better. Ex. Rare.

WE HIGHLY RECOMMEND DR. SHELDON'S "EARLY AMERICAN CENTS"

SILVER DOLLARS

286 — 1798. Bolender 6. Large Heraldic Eagle, as on the three following. Knob 9. 10 Arrows. Fine or better. Cost $22.50.
287 — 1798. B-13. 10 Arrows. Obverse, strictly Good; Reverse, V. Fair. Small scratch or two below Eagle's head.
288 — 1798. B-21. Another variety with 10 Arrows. This one is Rarity 4. Strictly Fine. A nice clean coin with one or two minute reverse edge bruises. Valued by Bolender at $35.00 so.
289 — 1798. Resembles B-23a. An unusual coin in that the small curl, at the top of the head, is unlike that found upon any variety with a wide date. May be unpublished. Abt. Very Fine. Nicely toned with traces of lustre. V. Rare.
290 — 1799. B-8a. Rarity 3. V. Good, some claims to Fine. Slight edge bruise at the base of the reverse.
291 — 1799. B-8b. Rarity 5. Fine. Usual unimportant defects including an obverse edge bruise. Rare variety.
292 — 1799. B-9a. Strictly Very Fine. A beautiful, impressive coin struck on a wide, full flan. Worth $30.00 so.
293 — 1799. B-21. Rarity 4. Fine or better. Usual minor defects, particularly upon the reverse. Rare. Cost $27.00.
294 — 1800. B-16. Letter "T" in UNITED is Double Cut. V. Good to Fine. A nice coin.
295 — 1801. B-1. Rarity 4. Almost Very Fine. Has a slight reverse defect. Beautifully struck and attractively toned. A rare variety of a very popular date. Worth $35.00.
296 — 1802/1. B-3. Rarity 3. A strictly Fine example of this interesting overdate. Few slight defects. Cost $20.00.
297 — 1802. B-5. Rarity 6. Somewhat better than Fine. Has a few minor edge bruises, particularly upon the obverse. Also, slightly tarnished, but still an acceptable example of a seldom seen variety. Valued by Bolender at $30.00.
298 — 1803. B-6. Large 3, which is partly recut at the base. Almost Fine. Has a reverse edge bruise and a few other defects. Worth at least $17.50.
299 — 1840. Very Good. Scarce.
300 — 1841. Almost Fine. Minute obverse nick. Uncommon date.
301 — 1842. Abt. Extremely Fine. Lustrous. Worth $10.00 so.
302 — 1843. Fine or better. Worth $6.50 so.
303 — 1844. Almost Fine. Few unimportant handling defects. Scarce.
304 — 1845. About Fine. Somewhat toned. An attractive and scarce coin.
305 — 1846. Similar to the last, but not quite as choice.
306 — 1846 "O". Close to Fine. A popular and scarce piece. Worth $10.00.
307 — 1847. Strictly Very Fine. Lustrous. Few slight defects.
308 — 1849. Fine or better. Has two obverse edge nicks, one of which is quite heavy. Uncommon.
309 — 1859. Very Fine. Nicely toned. One or two unimportant defects. Scarcer than generally known.
310 — 1860. Close to Uncirculated. Has a number of abrasion marks as so often found upon these coins. Lists at $20.00 Unc.
311 — 1860 "O" and 1861. First Fine to V. Fine with two obverse scratches. Last only Good with a few defects. 2 Pcs.
312 — 1869. Very Fine. Has an edge bruise upon both the obverse and reverse. Worth $7.50.
313 — 1871. Abt. V. Fine. Two small obverse edge nicks.
314 — 1872. Very Fine. Considerable Proof surface.
315 — 1872. "S". Abt. Fine. Two or three obverse edge nicks. Rare and in demand.
316 — 1872 "CC". Very Good. Few insignificant obverse edge nicks and an unnoticeable edge bruise. Only 3,150 pieces coined in all. This coin is definitely superior to its description.
317 — 1873. Extremely Fine. Considerable mint lustre. Has two obverse nicks, one of which is on the edge. Last year of the Gobrecht design.
318 — 1878. Morgan design. Eight tail feathers. Proof, mostly brilliant. Catalogs at $25.00.

319 — 1878. Proof, as the last. Has been cleaned and shows slight evidence of handling.

320 — 1878 7 T.F.; 78 "S"; 78 "CC"; 79 (2); 79 "S"; 80 "O" and 80 "S". Unc. (2); E.F. (3); F.-V.F. (2) and V. Good. Few scarce. 8 Pcs.

321 — 1880; 81 "O"; 81 "S"; 81 "CC"; 82; 82 "S"; 82 "CC"; 83; 83 "O"; 83 "S" and 84 "CC" (2). Unc. (6), including the last two. Balance V. Good to Ex. Fine. The 1881 "CC" is V. Good. Valuable lot. 12 Pcs.

322 — 1882. Proof. Brilliant. Choice except for one or two insignificant obverse defects. Catalogs at $10.00.

323 — 1885. Proof. Brilliant. Few unimportant signs of handling upon the obverse. Catalogs at $10.00.

324 — 1893. Proof. Not in full brilliancy. Partly tarnished. Catalogs at $12.50.

325 — 1896. Proof. Brilliant. Shows evidence of cleaning and considerable handling. Not as bad as its description implies. Catalogs at $17.50.

326 — 1898. Proof. Brilliant and choice. Not quite a "Gem" but above average. Catalogs at $12.50.

327 — 1899. Proof. Brilliant and choice. Unfortunately, this coin shows slight signs of handling. Like the last, it was purchased as a perfect coin. Catalogs at $15.00.

328 — 1901. Proof. Mostly brilliant, but has been cleaned and somewhat mishandled. Catalogs at $15.00.

329 — 1897 and 1900. Ex. Fine and Abt. Unc. The last is iridescently toned. Also, an 1873 Trade Dollar. Ex. Fine, formerly a Proof. All uncommon. 3 Pcs.

330 — 1876. Trade Dollar. Bought as a brilliant Proof, but actually, in our opinion, a first strike. The reverse has considerable Proof surface. Cost $17.50.

CALIFORNIA GOLD

The following small denomination coins were privately issued and appeared soon after the discovery of Gold in California. They are highly interesting from both a historical and numismatic viewpoint and are not to be confused with the imitations manufactured in recent years. The standard work on the series is CALIFORNIA GOLD—QUARTERS, HALVES, DOLLARS by Edward M. Lee, Glendale, Calif., 1932. This book is rather difficult to obtain and has sold as high as $15.00.

331 Octagonal Quarters. 1854. L. Liberty head. 5 Stars. Lee 8. Abt. Unc. The Menjou example was only V. Fine. ($5.00)

HARD TIMES TOKENS

This series, long the most popular in the entire token field, will rapidly increase in both value and interest within the next few years. It is our understanding that these interesting pieces will be incorporated into both the next edition of the Guidebook and eventually the Standard Catalog. The current standard work is HARD TIMES TOKENS by Lyman H. Low, New York, 1900, together with a supplement dated 1906. This book is considered rare and a copy sold for $21.00 in our last sale. An inferior and incomplete reprint exists which was published by Guttag Bros., circa 1925-26. The reprint sells from $5.00 to $10.00.

570 — 1893 and 1895. Brilliant Proofs. The last is beginning to tarnish. List at $10.00. 2 Pcs.

571 — 1897 and 1898. Proofs. Mostly brilliant. The first shows indications of tarnish upon the obverse. List at $7.50 each and rapidly becoming very scarce. 2 Pcs.

572 — 1899 and 1900. Brilliant Proofs. Both, particularly the last, show unimportant signs of tarnish. List at $12.00. First scarce. 2 Pcs.

573 — 1901 and 1903. Proofs, mostly brilliant. Traces of tarnish. List at $9.50. 2 Pcs.

574 — 1902, 07 and 1908. Ex. Fine, Unc. dull and Proof. The last not in full brilliancy. 3 Pcs.

575 — 1904, 05 and 1906. Proofs. Brilliant, but the first is beginning to tarnish upon the obverse. List at $13.50. 3 Pcs.

576 — 1909, 10 and 1911. Proofs. First two brilliant, one with a touch of tarnish. Last has been clumsily cleaned. 3 Pcs.

577 — 1912. Proof. Beautifully toned. A choice example of a date that is rapidly becoming scarce.

578 Indian Head. Complete set of "Buffalo Nickels" as struck at the Philadelphia mint. Includes both varieties of the 1913. Uncirculated, mostly brilliant. A few are weakly struck, but, all in all, this set is above average. The 1915 is a Proof and alone is worth $7.50. Altogether, an attractive and scarce set. Worth $50.00. 22 Pcs.

579 — 1913 "S" and "D". Type 1. Unc. First mostly brilliant, last dull. Worth $10.00. 2 Pcs.

580 — 1913 "S". Type II. Uncirculated. Weakly struck as always, but with considerable lustre. Rare. Lists at $30.00.

581 — 1913 "D". Type II. Unc. Well struck and unusually brilliant upon the obverse. The reverse is somewhat toned. As nice as the specimen that realized $10.00 in our last sale.

582 — 1914 "S". Unc. Poorly struck as usual. Considerable lustre. Lists at $15.00.

583 — 1914 "D". Unc. Comparatively well struck for this coin and particularly brilliant upon the obverse. An acceptable example of this scarce mintmark. Lists at $15.00.

584 — 1915 "S". Unc. Almost fully brilliant. A choice coin. Worth full catalog of $15.00.

585 — 1915 "D". Unc. Weakly struck upon the reverse, but almost fully brilliant. Choice.

586 — 1916 "S". Unc. Very similar to the last. Lustrous. Lists at $12.50.

587 — 1916 "D". Unc. Slightly weak upon the reverse, but brilliant and choice. Above average.

588 — 1917 "S". Uncirculated. Comparatively well struck with considerable lustre. This underrated coin was lacking in the set sold in our last sale. Lists at $35.00.

589 — 1917 "D". Unc. Somewhat weak, but the most brilliant specimen that we have seen. Lists at $20.00.

590 — 1918 "S". Uncirculated. Weakly struck as always, but lustrous. Has two planchet flaws on the face indicative of the difficulty of striking coins in Nickel. Acceptable and really rare. The specimen in our last sale realized $40.50.

591 — 1918 "D". Ex. Fine. This coin shows no signs of wear, but is weakly struck without lustre. Expert cleaning may restore it, as it undoubtedly had color at one time or we doubt if it would be in this set. In any event, a rare coin.

592 — 1919 "S". Uncirculated. Well struck for this coin and mostly in full brilliancy. Rare. An equal example sold for $40.00 in our last sale.

593 — 1919 "D". Uncirculated. Mostly brilliant and choice. Another "Sleeper" coin that was not in our 36th sale. Lists at $35.00 and well worth it.

594 — 1920 "S". Uncirculated. Miserably struck, as always, but superior to the specimen in our last sale which realized $30.00. This coin has considerable lustre and should bring close to $45.00.

595 — 1920 "D". Unc. Somewhat weakly struck, but far above average. Considerable lustre. Has a minute planchet defect on the obverse rim. As rare as the last. The coin in our last sale brought $32.50.

596 — 1921 "S". Uncirculated. A splendid, well struck specimen with considerable lustre. Worth full catalog of $40.00 so.

597 — 1923 "S". Unc. Somewhat weak and not fully brilliant. Still, a real rarity that is seldom found better. Lists at $35.00.

598 — 1925 "D". Uncirculated. Mostly brilliant and choice. The Lawrence example, in our last sale, realized full catalog of $12.50.

599 — 1926 "D" and 1927 "D". Uncirculated. First is poorly struck upon the reverse. Lustrous. List at $9.00. 2 Pcs.
